

I am writing to request that you NOT lift present restrictions on media ownership. These restrictions insure fair and balanced information, which is the basis for our democracy. I urge you to work to make the media diverse, competitive, balanced, and fair. Please serve the public interest by rejecting media deregulation. Thank you.